biological Children

- Emily and David have well-paying jobs. Emily has a nurturing personality and a passion for education, while David is analytical and enjoys problem-solving.
- They own a comfortable home in a family-friendly neighborhood with access to good schools and community resources.

About

- Emily and David have been married for 10 years and always wanted to start a family and, after years of unsuccessful attempts to conceive, they decided to pursue adoption to fulfill their dream of becoming parents.

Goals & Needs

- Primary Goal: To adopt a child and provide a loving, secure, and nurturing environment.
- Secondary Goal: To ensure the child has access to quality education and opportunities for personal growth.
- Understand the Adoption Process: Gain clear insights into the steps, requirements, and legal aspects of adoption.
- Track Application Status: Monitor the progress of their adoption application and receive updates.

Motivations

- Love for Children: Emily and David have always wanted to be parents and share their lives with a child.
- Giving Back: They want to provide a stable home to a child in need and make a positive impact on their life.
- Education Focus: As an educator, Emily values the importance of education and wants to ensure their future child has the best possible opportunities.

Technological Proficiency

Both Emily and David are comfortable using technology. David, being a software engineer, is highly proficient with digital tools, while Emily is adept at using educational and administrative software in her teaching profession.

Frustrations

- Complex Process: The adoption process is complex and often overwhelming, with many steps and requirements.
- Uncertainty: The uncertainty and waiting period involved in the adoption process can be stressful and emotionally challenging.
- Financial Concerns: They are aware of the costs associated with adoption and future educational expenses and want to ensure they are financially prepared.
- Lack of Transparency: Difficulty in getting clear and timely updates on the status of their application.
- Data Privacy Concerns: Ensuring that their personal and sensitive information is securely handled.
